

Assistance for sustainable and profitable choices

For each new investment it is necessary to entrust professionals, able to understand the sustainability and real profitability of the model that one intends to put in practice. For this reason, Studio Associato Santececchi assists its clients in the drafting of their business plan as well as their annual and multi-annual budgets, and in the analysis of relative deviations.

The professionals from Studio Associato Santececchi draw up:

- Drafting of annual and multi-annual business plan for investment projects
- Economical and financial budget and analyses of deviations with relative risk management
- Budget for borrowing requirements
- Expertise and company assessments

Recent operations and updates