

The best solution for each specific requirement

Studio Santececchi guides professionals, artisans and entrepreneurs in choosing the best organisational form through a thorough analyses of the specific requirements of each client.

From the initial analyses of the different company divisions to the drafting of the statute, up until the stipulation of the notary deed, Studio Santececchi follows and supports the client in each phase of the company formation and management, transfer of shareholdings and transactions of increase and reduction of share capital, both in Italy and the European Union as well as in non-EU countries.

Studio Associato Santececchi also offers its clients assistance relative to contractual problems advising them in the drafting of commercial contracts and with reference to legal matters.

- Choice of company model
- Preparation of the statute and of the preparatory documents
- Statute changes
- Verbalization of acts and corporate operations
- Share capital increase and reduction transactions
- Company domiciliation
- Transfer of equity interests
- Holding and updating of corporate books
- Execution and filling of acts with the Company Register
- Consultancy for the drafting of commercial contracts
- Assistance to companies undergoing legal proceedings

Recent operations and updates