

Studio Associato Santececchi provides domiciliation services for the companies' registered offices and for non-commercial entities, guaranteeing the client readily available information regarding all relative acts and communications, in addition to holding of company books and documents.