

Company's tax planning must always be evaluated under different perspectives: on the one hand taking into consideration corporate succession law and, on the other hand, with regards to the tax optimization which requires dedicated confidentiality which Studio Associato Santececchi is always able to guarantee through a consolidated collaboration with fiduciary companies and partners abroad.

Given the competitive scenario that is increasing internationally, it is important to know how to propose the most appropriate tax consultancy able to reduce the fiscal burden always in accordance with the laws, assisting the clients nationally and internationally, and eventually adapting the solutions in accordance to the clients short and long-term perspectives.