

Entrusting competent professionals also means reducing significant costs involving tax liabilities, in particular the less-liked modules such as the “Comunicazione Polivalente”, also known as “Spesometro”, mandatory for companies, merchants, artisans and self-employed professionals, or the correct compilation of forms, like the Intrastat and for transactions with countries with favoured tax conditions.