

On a monthly, quarterly and annual basis, Studio Associato Santececchi makes periodical reports and interim financial statements offering the clients updated figures of their company status. This service is useful both to listed companies and non-listed companies which have the current need to compare the real company situation with the budgets.

In a period of economic uncertainty, Studio Associato Santececchi offers these consultancy services as an extra tool which enables clients to proactively respond to market fluctuations.