

Company transformation is intended to be the process through which a company changes its juridical vest, for example from limited liability company to public company.

Since many years Studio Associato Santececchi takes care of this kind of transactions when requested by its clients.