

Liquidation is defined as the process by which a company is brought to an end, and the assets and property of the company are redistributed.

Studio Associato Santececchi is perfectly available to render any kind of assistance to its clients on such a matter.