

A new financing opportunity is granted to non-listed companies, the so called mini bonds which are bond certificates issued by non-listed companies. Also in Italy new avenues are open to private placements of debts with institutional investors.

Studio Associato Santececchi has already had the privilege to draft and give advices on such a matter.