

A wide range of services for every corporate need

Studio Associato Santececchi has supported small, medium and large companies as well as non-profit organizations for over thirty years in facing administrative deadlines and ordinary and extraordinary accounting, as well as in planning the development of the future through a range of services that cover all administrative, accounting, tax and labour needs. Thanks to numerous international collaborations, Studio Associato Santececchi can support clients in different foreign markets and in setting up subsidiaries and affiliated companies in various countries, in order to seize the opportunities offered in the global economy.

Why choose our services

Tailored Assistance

Every particular clients' request is carefully analysed to propose services and solutions able to match their needs.

Over-thirty-years Experience

During his long career, the chartered accountant Roberto Santececchi has developed a deep, on field experience shared everyday with his staff.

International Vision

Thanks to a network of partners covering three continents, Studio Santececchi can support his clients in finding the best solutions to put in reality their international vision.

Corporate Consultancy

Studio Santececchi guides professionals, artisans and entrepreneurs in choosing the best organisational form through a thorough analyses of the specific requirements of each client.

Tax Consultancy

Studio Associato Santececchi offers a wide range of services in tax assistance, consulting and planning, both at the national and international level, including expertise and advice, even via videoconferencing.

Accounting and Budgeting Consultancy

Studio Associato Santececchi guarantees attentive and up-to-date accounting management for a real-time reading of the dynamics characterizing the company's performance.

Non-Commercial Entities

The Studio attentively follows the requirements of non-profit associations and organizations, from the drafting of statutes to the reporting of projects.

Mangement and Investment Consultancy

Studio Associato Santececchi guides its clients in the drafting of business plans as well as the drafting of annual and multi-annual budgets and the analysis of relative discrepancies.

Extraordinary Operations

Sometimes business opportunities arise through mergers, divisions, corporate transformations, or even liquidation; situations that require particular attention and in which Studio Studio Associato Santececchi has extensive experience.

Tax Litigation

Our clients can count on our assistance both in pre-litigation and litigation proceedings through defence and representation at the Provincial and Regional Tax Commissions.

Labour Consultancy

Studio Associato Santececchi offers all the basic services in relation to the drafting of payroll, payment of social security contributions, relations with INPS and INAIL and the unions.

Request

Looking for tailored advice regarding specific questions?

Studio Santececchi also responds to digital inquiries: leave your questions on our site's dedicated page

Request